WHY PANDA WARRIORS

<https://moonshotgarageproject.com/>

UTILITY. EXPERIENCE. LONGEVITY

OUR MISSION: Create a hand-drawn NFT Collection, where each NFT creates an EXPERIENCE for Community, carries UTILITY and grows in VALUE OVER TIME.

UTILITY. We believe NFTs, in general, have massive potential and impact on the entire world. NFTs are here to stay. Apart from being a nice piece of art, we believe NFTs should have a utility purpose. Therefore, Panda Warriors NFT Collection has several utility features, which you will discover on our journey.

EXPERIENCE. We believe, experience plays a significant role in the success of the NFT project, the art itself is already a great experience, however, we wanted to create something more than just an ART for our community, therefore, be ready for different types of experiences (adventures) on our way. All upcoming experiences will be announced in our Discord.

LONGEVITY. Our mission is to build a strong community of like-minded people, art-lovers, NFT-enthusiasts, passionate collectors. We have long-term goals to be achieved together. We will be sharing our goals with PW Community step-by-step, as we move forward.

The #roadmap will only show you the beginning of our journey, so make sure to follow Panda Warriors on Twitter for the latest updates.

Our MOTO: “EVERYONE WINS”. We are building a Community, where EVERYONE WINS, from early adopters to those, who will be joining Panda Warriors later on. Growing our community of Panda Warriors over time is our priority and our strength.

TRAITS

Each Wanna Panda collectable is a 100% unique programmatically and randomly generated from over 200 traits. Wanna Panda focuses on expressions, animation and authenticity. The traits include mood, clothing, headwear and fun accessories. Some are animated, and some are rarer than others.

The pandas are stored as ERC-721 tokens on the Ethereum blockchain and hosted on IPFS. They're tamper-proof and last forever.

Traits. Each Panda Warrior is generated out of 170 different hand-drawn traits. Some traits are more special than others, making all 10,000 Panda Warriors ranked from common, rare to super rare. Traits include background, body, eyes, hat, mouth, accessories. Soon after minting, you will be able to check rarity traits to find out how rare is your Panda Warrior.
